
First of all, I want to be loved.

If I can't be loved, I want to be

If I can't be, I want to be

If I can't be, I want to be

If I can't be, I want to be

If I can't be, I want to be

If I can't be, I want to be

First of all, I want to be loved.

If I can't be loved, I want to be respected.

If I can't be respected, I want to be accepted.

If I can't be accepted, I want to be recognized.

If I can't be recognized, I want to be noticed.

If I can't be noticed, I want to be feared.

If I can't be feared, I want to be hated.
